

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

January Issue

Dec 30, 2022

I was driving up the highway a few weeks ago heading to one of my favorite cities to visit: Portland, OR. I had just left Mount Shasta, CA that morning and was going along I-5 when I found I had wasted an hour or more ruminating on an injustice I had suffered a month before. I can't count the number of times I have found myself doing this, revisiting events or situations like I'm stuck on the worst-ever merry-go-round. Has this happened to you?

As I was driving, I suddenly realized what I was doing and recalled the Gospel reading from the previous Sunday where Jesus tells his followers to pray continually to God for justice. The outraged part of me thought, "Maybe I should pray for justice!", but the Deacon side of me wondered if praying for revenge was a suitable request for the Holy One who loves each of us. (Remember the Apostles who wanted to call down fire on a village that had rejected Jesus' message? You may recall they were quickly rebuked!)

In the midst of this inner debate, (one that I somehow often lose—I can't figure that out—How do I lose a debate with myself?), I woke up to the view I had been driving through this entire time.

I had been driving through beautiful mountains covered with green trees, with the smell of pine trees floating in and out of the windows. I descended into valleys with green fields and picturesque farmhouses, some with collections of old cars, trucks, and tractors. The sky was a mix of blue skies with white, cottony clouds floating along. Occasionally you would catch sight of birds, horses, cows, and deer. The traffic was light, the driving was easy, and the view was gorgeous.

I realized I had spent over an hour riding the merry-go-round of irritation and consternation, and lost over an hour of a good day. As some self-help people like to say, “Why rent space in your mind to people who treat you badly?”

Why, I asked myself, do I want to keep riding that awful merry-go-round when so much of God’s creation and God’s people are in the here-and-now? It’s nothing more than a bad habit that I keep falling into, but it’s also part of the way the evil one tries to continually tear us down and keep us blinded to a world where we live in the light.

If we allow ourselves to spend our time being irritated, then we will reflect that irritation out into the world around us. If we focus on spending our time in gratitude, that gratitude for God’s creation will reflect out into the world instead.

You would think, by now, that this Deacon would be able to live a more consistent light-driven existence, but the truth is, like everyone else, I keep falling off the path. In persistence, though, and with the inspiration of the Spirit, I continually find my way back onto the path of life. May the Spirit keep helping you back onto this path, too. God loves us because followers of the way are always persevering in prayer and in struggles.

Peace,

Deacon Greg

Salvation Army Shelter Dinner

The Salvation Army Shelter Dinner Team continued the ministry to the guests and staff at the Shelter in downtown Modesto in 2022. We prepared and served dinner three times throughout the year: March, July and October. Each time we included a protein, vegetables and/or salad, bread, dessert, and milk or juice.

The menu varied according to availability of resources and the time of year. The guests and staff are always very appreciative of the meal and, oddly, the fact that we try to clean up as we are serving.

The Team is always happy to have anyone help with any of the many ways to be part of this ministry. Ways to help include: praying for the Team and the guests at the Shelter; donating funds toward the costs of purchasing the various ingredients; donating particular parts of the menu; baking or cooking prior to the dinner (i.e.-chocolate chip cookies, ground beef, cornbread, etc.); preparing the meal the day of the dinner-done in the church kitchen; serving at the Shelter. Reservations for dinners in 2023 have been made for 6 Sundays: January, March, May, July, September, and November.

A huge thank you to everyone who made this ministry possible in 2022 and we are excited to be continuing it in 2023. Contact Linda Lowe, 209-496-3937 or lwlowe@outlook.com, for details about the individual dates and how you might be available to help.

Recycling at St. Paul's

Every Sunday, collection cans for recycled aluminum cans and CA redeemable plastic are in the church entrance. Please rinse and drain your recyclable plastic and aluminum cans before putting them in the bins. The money from recycling will go to fund "Creation Care" projects.

January 7th is our work day to clean the church. Please bring dust rags, small vacuums and websters (if you have them). We will be dusting, removing cobwebs and vacuuming the pew chairs. Just a general cleanup.

All are encouraged to come. Let's make this fun. It will be a good time to work together and make our facilities look nice. If any questions, please call Judy Teter.

I am convinced that love is the most durable power in the world. It is not an expression of impractical idealism, but of practical realism. Far from being the pious injunction of a Utopian dreamer, love is an absolute necessity for the survival of our civilization. To return hate for hate does nothing but intensify the existence of evil in the universe. Someone must have sense enough and morality enough to cut off the chain of hate and evil, and this can only be done through love.

Fresh Starts

I suppose when we wake on January 1 the world will look the same. But there is a reminder of the Resurrection at the start of each new year, each new decade. That's why I also like sunrises, Mondays and new seasons. God seems to be saying, "With me you can always start afresh."

—Ada Lum

Ordering the days

God spoke and created all that exists. He separated and ordered his creation. What did God say about all he made?

Directions: Write the correct day of creation next to each clue. Then fill in the circled letters in order below to complete Genesis 1:31, NIV.

FIRST SECOND THIRD FOURTH FIFTH SIXTH

- God made wild animals and livestock. ○ _ _ _ _ _
- God said, "Let there be light." _ _ _ _ _ ○
- God gathered the waters under the sky into one place. _ ○ _ _ _ _
- God made a vault to separate the waters and called it "sky." _ _ _ _ _ ○
- God created plants and trees. _ _ _ _ _ ○
- God separated the light from the darkness. _ ○ _ _ _ _
- God made the water teem with living creatures. _ _ _ _ _
- God made the sun and moon. _ _ _ _ _ ○
- God made birds fly above the earth. _ _ _ _ _
- God made stars. _ ○ _ _ _ _
- God created mankind in his own image. _ _ _ _ _

God _aw all tha_ he _ad ma_e, an_ _t was ve_y g_od.

GENESIS 1:31, NIV

TASTY CREATIONS

Make this yummy treat to remember what happened on each day of Creation.

What you need:

- 6 large pretzel rods
- Candy melts (white, chocolate and blue)
- Green sprinkles
- White or star-shaped sprinkles
- Fish crackers
- Animal crackers
- Adult help

What you do:

1. With help, melt the three colors of candy melts in separate dishes. Microwave for 30 seconds at a time, stirring until soft.
2. Decorate one pretzel for each day of Creation:
 - Dip half in white and half in chocolate to show light and darkness.
 - Dip half in white and half in blue to show separation of the atmosphere.
 - Dip half in chocolate, add green sprinkles and dip half in blue to show land, plants and water.
 - Dip in chocolate and add white or star sprinkles to show the stars.
 - Dip in blue and add fish crackers to show sea life.
 - Dip in chocolate and add animal crackers to show land animals.
3. Share the Creation story — and the snack — with a friend!

Answer: sixth, first, third, second, third, first, fourth, fifth, fourth, sixth; God saw all that he had made, and it was very good.
